Excerpts from forthcoming book

God's Plan is Like a Woven Tapestry

God's plan for our lives requires His leadership. As we yield to the Master Designer, He is able to impart into us that which unfolds and becomes a beautiful tapestry that carries the mark of the artistry of God. It is in this beautiful tapestry that we are able to look back and see the footsteps of God in the earth traveled through the frailness of our own feet.

Jesus Is Here

One Saturday, Beth and I were sitting in the living room in our little house talking about what was happening in our hearts. As we began sharing with one another the atmosphere in the room changed. Beth looked at me and very quietly announced, "Jesus is here." When she said that, I was overwhelmed by His presence, and I knew that He was standing next to me. Though we did not see Him with our eyes, His glory permeated us. In that moment, these words came: "Separate unto the work I have called you to." Now the Lord's will was clear, and we would have to make a faith step into this new direction.

I am so excited about our forthcoming book. It has taken a lifetime to write—first on the tablet of our hearts and then onto the printed page.

Beth and I greet you in the mighty name of Jesus! As you can see that our travel schedule is very exciting. From the capital of the European Union, Brussels, to Seoul, our feet shall bring forth praise in the earth by bearing precious seed to the nations. Jesus is coming! Are you ready?

I desire to express to you how much we cherish your partnership. We covet your prayers. It is your prayers that bring forth a supply in the spirit that turns situations and opens new doors—especially into the hearts of men. Believe with me that God is going to be opening hearts on a level that we have never seen before.

Acts 16:14 Paul spoke and the Lord opened Lydia's heart.

Over the course of the next two months our feet will step into the heart -capital cities- in these nations. As soon as I return from Brussels, I will be leaving for an outreach in Sweden that begins in Gothenburg and ends in Stockholm—Sweden's beautiful capital.

Don't underestimate your prayers. The harvest is great and we are anointed to plow up the ground so that men will hear - many for the first time. There are many who have not heard once, while many have heard multiple times. Let's invest in all, but especially in those who have never heard.

With Great Love
